Tour Itinerary

Day 1 - Arrival and Transfer to Phuentsholing

After arriving at New Jalpaiguri Railway Station (NJP) or Bagdogra Airport (IXB), be ready to journey towards Phuentsholing or Jaigaon, which is at a distance of about 170 kilometres. Phuentsholing is the second largest town in Bhutan and lies close to Jaigaon. On arrival, enjoy your overnight stay in Phuentsholing.

Day 2 - Phuentsholing to Thimphu

After a scrumptious breakfast, travel to Thimphu. The total journey duration is about 6 to 7 hours. After enjoying a two-hour drive through the mountain forests, eye-pleasing lianas and orchids, you will pass over the first ridge and begin a long and gradual decent to the gushing river, which is the source for the massive Chhukha Hydropower Plant project. Cross the river and travel over the hills as you bid goodbye to Chhukha and the town of Chimakothi. Relish a scrumptious lunch en route. After arriving at Thimphu, check in at the hotel. Enjoy a delicious dinner and a peaceful overnight stay at the hotel in Thimphu.

Day 3 - Thimphu Sightseeing

In the morning, get set to explore Tashichho Dzong, a serene Buddhist monastery and fortress on the western bank of Wang Chu. After this, visit National Institute for Zorig Chusum. This institute preserves the Bhutanese culture and tradition. After lunch, visit the National Memorial Chorten, an important landmark of Thimphu. You will also visit the Folk Heritage and National Textile Museum, a perfect place to learn about the traditional Bhutanese garments and weaving techniques of the earlier times. After a fun sightseeing time, enjoy your overnight stay at the hotel in Thimphu.

Day 4 - Thimphu to Paro

After breakfast drive to Paro en route visit Simtokha Dzong. This dzong, built in 1627 is the oldest in Bhutan. It now houses the Institute for Language and Culture Studies. Afternoon in Paro, visit Ta Dzong, once a watchtower, built to defend Rinpung Dzong during inter-valley wars of the 17th century, Ta Dzong was inaugurated as Bhutan's National Museum in 1968.

Afterwards, walk down a hillside trail to visit Rinpung Dzong. Built in 1646 by Shabdrung Ngawang Namgyal, the first spiritual and temporal ruler of Bhutan, the Dzong houses the monastic body of Paro, the office of the Dzongda (district administrative head) and Thrimpon (judge) of Paro district. The approach to the Dzong is through a traditional covered bridge called Nemi Zam. Overnight at the hotel in Paro.

Day 5 – Paro

After breakfast drive up the valley to view the ruins of Drukgyel Dzong. It was from here that the Bhutanese repelled several invading Tibetan armies during the 17th century. Then take an excursion to Taktsang Monastery, the most famous of Bhutanese monasteries. It is said that Guru Rinpoche arrived here on the back of a tigress and meditated at this monastery hence it is called "Tiger's Nest". The excursion to monastery takes about 5 hours for round trip. While return to Paro town visit en route Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the oldest and most sacred shrines of the Kingdom. Overnight at the hotel in Paro.

Day 6 - Transfer from Paro to Phuentsholing

After a delicious breakfast, travel to Phuentsholing. En route, halt for a short time in Chuzom. Drive further through Chapcha and later enjoy the magnificent view of the Chhukha Dam and the spectacular Vince waterfall before arriving in Gedu, a town in the Chhukha district. After arriving Phuentsholing in the evening, check in at the hotel and enjoy your overnight stay.

Day 7 – Departure

Your delightful tour of Bhutan ends today. After a scrumptious breakfast, travel to New Jalpaiguri Railway Station or Bagdogra Airport for your journey back home.
